BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 36, is amended by adding the following new chapter:

(B) Does not include a physical or digital photograph, a video or audio recording, or data generated from the recording, or information collected, used, or stored for healthcare treatment, payment, or operations under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) (42 U.S.C. § 1320d et seq.); and

(C) Does not include data or information collected, used, or stored for law enforcement purposes;

(2) "Child" means an unemancipated, unmarried individual who has not attained eighteen (18) years of age;

(a) The liberty of a parent to the care, custody, and control of the parent's child, including the right to direct the upbringing, education, health care, and mental health of the child, is a fundamental right.

(b) A government entity shall not substantially burden the fundamental rights of a parent as provided under this section unless the government entity demonstrates that the burden, as applied to the parent and the child, is required by a compelling governmental interest of the highest order and is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling governmental interest.

(c) All parental rights are exclusively reserved to a parent of a child without obstruction by or interference from a government entity, including, but not limited to, the following rights and responsibilities:

- (1) To direct the upbringing of the child;
- (2) To direct the moral or religious training of the child;

- (7) To have the child excused from school attendance for religious purposes;
- (8) To participate in parent-teacher associations and school organizations that are sanctioned by the board of education of a local education agency;
- (9) To be notified promptly if an employee of the state reasonably believes that abuse, neglect, or any criminal offense has been committed against the child by someone other than the parent, unless doing so would interfere with a criminal investigation or department of children's services investigation, or unless an employee of the state, a political subdivision of the state, a local education agency, a public charter school, or any other governmental entity is required by law to withhold such information;
- (10) To consent before the collection, storing, or sharing of any individual biometric data, data relative to analysis of facial expressions, electroencephalogram brain wave patterns, skin conductance, galvanic skin response, heart-rate variability, pulse, blood volume, posture, and eye-tracking, as specified in §§ 49-1-706 and 49-2-211;
- (11) To consent before any record of the child's blood or deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) is created, stored, or shared, unless authorized by law or pursuant to a court order; and

(2) This section does not prevent the department of children's services from conducting an investigation or otherwise carrying out its responsibilities under state law.

(3) This section does not apply when:

(A) A parent of the minor has given blanket consent authorizing the person or entity to perform an activity listed in subsection (c);

(B) A government entity or any other person reasonably relies in good faith on an individual's representations that the individual is the parent of a minor or has otherwise been granted authority to make decisions regarding a minor's care under state law;

(C) A person, including a law enforcement officer, participates or assists in rendering emergency care pursuant to § 63-6-218;

(D) An employee of a local education agency acts to control bleeding using a bleeding control kit pursuant to § 49-2-137; or

(E) Services are provided to or information is received or maintained about a minor enrolled in an institution of higher education or a minor participating in a program for which the minor's parent has consented to the child's participation by an employee of the institution of higher education or other school official.

(e) A public employee, other than law enforcement personnel, shall not encourage or coerce a child to withhold information from the child's parent. A public employee shall not withhold from a child's parent information that is relevant to the physical, emotional, or mental health of the child unless required by law to withhold such information.

(f)(1) A parent whose rights have been burdened by a government entity in violation of this section may assert that violation of this section as a claim or defense in any judicial or administrative proceeding, without regard to whether the proceeding is brought by or in the name of the state, a private person, or another party.

(2) A parent who prevails in a proceeding to enforce this section against a government entity may recover the following from a court of competent jurisdiction:

(A) Declaratory relief;

(B) Injunctive relief; and

(C) Compensatory damages, including reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

(g) A person or entity that is not a parent shall not have standing to raise in any proceeding in this state the fundamental rights of a parent established in subsection (a).

36-8-104.

This chapter must be construed using the following rules:

(1) The protections of the fundamental right of parents to the care, custody, and control of their child afforded by this chapter are in addition to the protections provided under federal law, state law, and the state constitution;

(2) This chapter must be construed in favor of a broad protection of the fundamental right of parents to the custody, care, and control of their children, including the right to direct the upbringing, education, health care, and mental health of their child;

(3) This act does not give parents a right to medical treatments for their children that have been prohibited by state law;

(4) State law enacted after July 1, 2024, is subject to this chapter unless the law explicitly excludes such application by reference to this chapter; and

(5) The enumeration of parental rights in this chapter must not be construed to abridge any additional parental rights codified or recognized under current law or to prohibit the codification or recognition of additional parental rights.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 63, Chapter 1, Part 1, is amended by adding the following new section:
