My bf went to jail and left me with pretty much no money, a lotta bills, and no wheels. I was wondering if you knew any kind of work at all that I could do for someone? Cut n clean brush, weedeat, power wash, house clean, paint, rake leaves, do laundry, pretty much anything Im capable of doing, I'd do.... Work wise. I'm worried about how I'm gonna take this huge house and the bills now that I ain't able to do the work me and him were doing. If I can't pay the mortgage they're liable to take the house. And I was wondering if you still had a truck? Status: Read Message Type: SMS Folder: Inbox

She's had a pissy attitude for reasons unknown to me for several days now at least and I finally had enough. She acts like it's the end of the world to be here with me and it's not. she's got shelter, plenty of food, I bought her clothes and jewelry and anything she wants I'll go get her and I have, I got her flowers yesterday and I don't even so much just get a thank you for anything, let alone offer to help me with anything at all. She's letting me borrow some money so that we could have things and I plan on paying her back. She won't tell me exactly what's wrong she just keeps saying she wants to leave this state but she won't give me any reason at all why she has this bitchy little attitude and keeps treating me like this and no my life isn't easy but I make the best of it but I'm certainly not going to bust my ass Chuck I'm busting my ass twice as hard to make sure everything's okay. Status: Read Message Type: SMS Folder: Inbox

You don't have to completely ignore me or make excuses to why you didn't answer the phone. You can let me know that you have plans, or you just wanna sit at home. It's not going to effect anything negatively. When you choose to not answer sometimes because you don't want to hangout or let it be known you seen my messages, that's when I start to feel upset, and like a burden because here I am messaging you over and over not knowing if your just choosing to not answer me back, or if you have sat your phone down and your looking for it. I'm not mad at you or anything like that so please don't think that. I would just greatly appreciate it if you and I could communicate better from now on, you would just let me know things how they are, instead of leaving me to wonder the possible and the even more possible when it comes with you lol .
